

Calling all Prairie High School

Members of the class of 1964 plus faculty and staff members who influenced our lives at Prairie.

Here are just a few faculty and staff members we remember fondly.

Ken Marsh • Jim and Don Jennings • Howard Strong
Clarence Bergman • Patrick Shirley • Sam Wiley • Andy Bubon
Coach Leigh • Gene Seehusen • Gloria Canney just to name a few...the list goes on and on.

BACK TO SCHOOL TIME!

Dean and Gerrie Buresh and The Prairie School Foundation are hosting a reception for any of you connected with Prairie High School prior to 1964. If you are a descendent of any class members of the faculty and staff we welcome you to attend

WHAT'S THE OCCASION?

DEAN'S BOOK!

"Teachers: You Can't Live Without Them"

is an inner-perspective book about how teacher's influenced Dean's life and career path growing up and attending schools in Cedar Rapids.

The reception is Dean and Gerrie's way of saying THANK YOU to all of his teachers/mentors.

WHEN? WHERE? WHAT TIME?

The event will be held Friday, April 21

Kirkwood Hotel, Cedar Rapids

4:00-6:00 pm

Let's meet, chat and relive some memories and stories that reflect on the influence teachers had on our lives.

Please RSVP to Randy Rumery, Executive Director,

Prairie School Foundation:

Text 319-530-3372 or email rumery@crprairie.org
or email deanburesh@gmail.com

All proceeds from the sale of Dean's book are donated to the Prairie School Foundation, which includes an endowment to fund any graduate of Prairie High School who continues his or her education at Kirkwood Community College.
